

TRILOGY

Looking young never gets old.

A photograph of three women sitting on a bed with a dark metal headboard. The woman on the left has long, straight white hair and is wearing a pink top. The woman in the middle has long, wavy brown hair and is wearing a black top with a colorful floral pattern. The woman on the right has long, wavy light-colored hair and is wearing a white top. They are all looking towards the camera with slight smiles.
